Investment Banking Analyst – Los Angeles Office

Cascadia Capital:

Cascadia Capital is a team of client-focused, trusted advisors with deep expertise in a broad range of industries. We partner with our clients to deliver results based on our industry domain expertise, transaction experience, and commitment to long-term relationships. We're different from most investment banks because our advice is not conflicted by lending, trading, research or cross-selling business.

Cascadia is seeking an experienced Analyst to join our team based in Los Angeles. This is a unique opportunity to join a thriving practice and play a key role in Cascadia's continued growth and success. The Analyst will be responsible for developing and reviewing financial models (B/S, IS, CFS) and valuation models, drafting information memorandums and management presentations, managing due diligence efforts working directly with management teams and buyer/seller groups, and researching industries, companies and M&A targets.

The Ideal Candidate Will Have the Following Skills and Experience

- Excellent financial and data analysis skills
- Critical/strategic thinking
- Strong financial modeling and forecasting skills
- Outstanding quantitative and technical skills
- Strong Microsoft Office programs knowledge and skills
- Basic accounting knowledge
- Self-motivated, proactive work habits
- An effective communicator, able to adapt communication style to different audiences
- Team player, strong ability to collaborate and deliver solution based results
- Excellent attitude
- Strong client management/client service skills
- Approximately 1-2 years of experience in investment banking or other financial services
- BA/ BS degree.

We would enjoy the opportunity to speak with you further about this role.
